HENDERSON INSTITUTE

The 1963 Panther

Foreword

We, the Senior Class of 1963, have attempted to preserve for you the most enjoyable years spent at Henderson Institute. Our experiences, profitable or sorrowful, will linger in the thoughts of each of us. It is our wish to share with you some of these cherished events which we hope will be beneficial in many ways. We have profited from our own experiences and from the experiences of others. Remembering this, we hope the 1963 Panther will serve as a beacon to guide your future.

The annual staff along with our advisors have worked diligently in the preparation of this book. It is our hope that these efforts will be a stimulus to each of you to uphold the standards of Henderson Institute.

Dedication

To You. . .Senior Sponsors, The 1963 graduating class of H. I. sincerely dedicate the 1963 Panther, this collection of our fondest memories. Our choice was not made hastily, but after hours of deliberation and thought.

There are many reasons why you should be our dedicatees and we think all of them are sound, yet, too numerous to develop in the space allocated for this dedication. Yet, we think it sufficient to say that because of your sincerity, humility and helpfulness to us we are able to see through ourselves, that we might know ourselves.

There is one regret in our dedication of this year book to you, that is words are ineffectual as we try to express our appreciation.

THE SENIORS

ADMINISTRATION

Our Principal

L. E. SPENCER

Schools are often thought of as "common" because they serve all the people. Since your Yearbook serves the whole school citizenry, how have you thought about it? Your production represents a working together to meet a need for self expression on the part of all of our students. Have you attained that goal? From the beginning you have struggled. Now, your efforts culminate a desire to serve the whole school - Congratulations.

Guidance Counselors

Your experiences at Henderson Institute are almost over. However, I hope these experiences have given you a sense of belonging, a deep desire for intellectual growth, a willingness to make decisions, and an understanding of "self."

Each success and each failure will help you meet the challenge in this changing world. As you grow to maturity your experiences will help you increase your personal reality and will broaden your horizons in your future environment.

Your Counselor,

M. M. Avent

M. M. Avent

You and those who come after you are fortunate to live at a time when opportunities abound for you as never before. Certainly you are to be congratulated for having reached this milestone of your life, but because of the unlimited opportunities that are open to you do not stop here. Set your goals high, and continue to make ready for life until you have attained that position that your interests and your maximum abilities will allow. You will then be able to live the good life and to make those contributions to your community, state and nation that are expected of you as good citizens.

Your Counselor,

Class Will

We, the Senior Class, of Henderson Institute on this the 13th day of February in the year 1963 do make this our last will and testament.

To our beloved Principal:	Our esteem gratification for the way which he used his authority to benefit us.
To our dear Guidance Counselors:	Our humble thanks and appreciation for the wonderful guidance given us during the years.
To the Faculty:	Our sincere hope that they will continue their excellent instruction.
To the Juniors:	Our spoke in the wheel of achievement in the hope that it will turn as much for them as it has for us.
To the Sophomores:	Our abilities and courage to encounter the years of junior high.
To the Freshmen:	Our best wishes that they will make the best of their high school career.
To the Lowerclassmen:	Our understanding of the value of education so they will not waste the years ahead.

And, as executors of this, our will, we hereby appoint Mrs. Parker, Mrs. Boyd, and Mr. Randolph.
